D.O. No.-J-12/3/2023-CPU

Dear Chief Secretary,

The Department of Consumer Affairs is responsible for effectively implementing the consumer protection laws and functioning of the consumer dispute redressal mechanism. It plays a significant role in addressing the pendency of consumer commission cases.

2. The Department, during the last one year, with the active support of State and District Consumer Commissions undertook various steps which include various regional workshops in Assam (North East) and Chandigarh (Northern states), state specific meetings, and various sector-specific conferences related to 'Insurance Sector' and the 'Real Estate Sector'. National Lok Adalat and Grahak Madhyastata Samadhan have also been organised in the last one year by the Consumer Commissions.

3. With the active support and participation of all the State Government/ Union Territories and Consumer Commissions at the National, State and District level, it has been observed that from July 2022 onwards there is a significant positive shift towards the speedy and efficient disposal of cases with a disposal rate more than 100% in many States and District Commissions.

4. In this regard, it was observed that out of 28 State Commissions & 8 Union Territories:

- 17 State Commissions have a disposal rate of more than 100% (Annexure-I)
- 19 State Commissions have a disposal rate of less than 100% (Annexure-II)

5. Similarly, out of all the District Commissions:

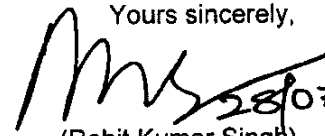

- 333 District Commissions have a disposal rate of more than 100%.
- 287 District Commissions have a disposal Rate of less than 100%

6. The status of the District Commissions pertaining to your state is enclosed as (Annexure-III)

7. In this regard, I shall be highly obliged if you kindly look into the matter and direct the concerned to review the status of pending cases in your State as well as consumer commissions on periodic basis and take appropriate actions so that the objective of the Act may be achieved effectively.

With warm regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Rohit Kumar Singh) 28/07/23
